

LABoral CENTRO DE ARTE Y CREACIÓN INDUSTRIAL ANNOUNCES THE POST OF CHIEF CURATOR

Candidates must have three years of experience in the domain of the visual arts, technology, science and industrial creation, a university degree and mastery of both Spanish and English.

Submission of candidacies will be accepted until March 23rd.

LABoral Centro de Arte y Creación Industrial has begun accepting candidacies from around the world to fill the position of Chief Curator. Submissions for the position will be accepted until March 23rd, after which the process of selecting the winning candidate will begin. Candidates must have three years of experience in the domain of the visual arts, technology, science and industrial creation, a university degree and complete mastery of the Spanish and English languages.

Amongst other functions, the Chief Curator will lead a small team that will be in charge of research in LABoral's various programme areas, significantly contributing to the development of a theoretical and practical discourse within the framework of the LABoral management and direction project and the conceptual positions deriving from it. In his or her work, the Chief Curator will report directly to the Centre's Directorate.

When it comes to developing the LABoral programming policies, the Chief Curator will grant utmost importance to the creation of audiences. She/He will help develop networks of relationships in the art world in order to contribute to LABoral's excellence and international status as an exhibition, research and production centre. He/She will actively involve him/herself in the local art scene in Asturias and will look for ways to promote, educate and integrate it, amongst other opportunities, within the global context.

Together with the Directorate and the General Coordinator, the Chief Curator will also explore opportunities for subsidisation and sponsorship, contributing proactively to securing such funding.

CANDIDATE PROFILE

The Chief Curator must have a university degree or equivalent and must have a minimum of three years of experience in the interdisciplinary field of visual arts, technology, science and industrial creation. She/He must also demonstrate a profound familiarity with the art world, with a network of contacts in Spain and abroad in the fields of visual arts, technology and contemporary industrial creation so as to be able to contribute to the continuation of LABoral as an international point of reference, capable of developing a policy of activities carried out with excellence.

The candidate must have a complete mastery of Spanish and English and be able to demonstrate his/her skill in the communication of acquired knowledge. He/She must also be able to involve and engage a variety of audiences and demonstrate a capacity for communication and teamwork.

Applications should be sent, before March 30th, 2009, to the Secretary of La Fundación D. José Pedreira, vía email to secretario@laboralcentrodearte.org or by registered post in a sealed envelope that, on the outside, visibly indicates "ANNOUNCEMENT CHIEF CURATOR" without including the sender's name to
